And all the big machines can break
All the game it might be fake
Poison fingers on the hand you take
Keep your walk at a steady pace
Breathe in, watch for cracks
Be confident, keep off your back
All you say is all an act
Would you take it all back?

All your chemicals can change
Squeeze your head until it caves
Ohh, the point has been lost for days
Pull me back out

Get up off your knees
Desire is o.k. if you like to bleed
Slip inside the boredom
God I'm thinking
Get inside and cut them off
Choke them off again

Would you like to see all the smoked out machines?
Get in your holes
Get in your holes

All your chemicals can change
Squeeze your head until it caves
Ohh, the point has been lost for days
Pull me out
Squeeze your head until it caves
All your chemicals can change
Ohh, the point has been lost for days
Pull me out

So use the down machines to fix
The mess that your head has mixed
You're building walls and climbing flaws
It never changed a thing
Never changed a thing
Ohh, it never fixed a thing
You build the walls your climbing on

So Pull me out
Come on, pull me out

All your chemicals can change
Squeeze your head until it caves
Ohh, the point has been lost for days
Pull me back out
