Every dream I have
It seems so real
I wished the dream would finish and let me know the end I walk a
days confused
I think you know the way to come with after you

and dont go
when everyday it feels so wrong
so just close your eyes

time has passed
thinking of all the beautiful things that we have seen close my eyes
and fream of you
to bring me back
to bring me back to you

when everyday it feels so wrong
when everyday it feels so wrong
so just close my eyes

so just close
so just close
your eyes
