Let me get this straight with you let me hear you say what you wanted to would you think i ignored you and would you think that I did not care cause i'm holding on
trying to find our way

what I didn't do was
always think of you
why can't we just pray

and give me one good reason to stay and all the troubles we have will fade away you didnt even care to say good-bye and all I see is tears from your eyes cause I'm holding on

always think of you
what I didnt do was
always think of you

holding on
holding on
trying to find
our way
our way

always think of you
what I didnt do was
always think of you
why cant we just pray
