Used to be, where I lived
Was so dark and so gray
And it rained on my block
Almost each and every day

Then one day it happened
I found you and the
Rain turned to sunshine
And my skies are blue

Happiness, I found love
Oh, I said happiness
I found love

I used to be so lonely
I wished that I, I was dead
And everywhere I went
A little black cloud
Flew over my head

Then one day it happened
You came into my life
And now I'm gonna
Ask you to be my wife

Happiness, I found love
Oh, I said happiness
I found love

No more skies are turning gray
No more crying til the break of day
I'm so happy that I wanna cry
Gonna live on the street
Til the day I die
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Oh, baby
I need you so much
I need you, I want you
Oh, yeah
