We all know they've got all the answers
We all know there's nothing below the surface
Don't try to find a reason
Control is certain
Conform
Generations forfeit by time
Lost in a medicated freedom
And hatred becomes the path
When you've got no voice
And there's nothing left but screams inside

Reality is a prison
Following the program of others
A medicated freedom is waiting
Digging deeper, it's all designed to hold you down

The needle teds to the tattered fabric
How long we've waited for just one moment
When hatred's not the path
But we've got no voice and there is nothing left
But screams inside

Reality is a prison
Following the program of others
A medicated freedom is waiting
Digging deeper, it's all designed to hold you down
I alone, can leave this behind
I alone know
It's breaking you down
Lead astray
Sheep follow
Watch what you say
Just swallow
Reality is a prison
Following the program of others
A medicated freedom is waiting
Digging deeper, it's all designed to hold you down
