What is cinco cervezas? I really don't know
But this pretty little senorita said it and I liked how it flowed
And what is venga mi casa? I really don't know
From the way that she smiled I could tell how the story
would go

Chica Bonita, you're pretty like a rose
Mi senorita, me love how you a pose
Dame un beso, your hot and it shows
Toca mi vida and everybody knows

She's my Chica Bonita, you're pretty like a rose
Mi senorita, me love how you a pose
Dame un beso, your hot and it shows
Toca mi vida and everybody knows

Baby baby baby
Tell me what you wanna do and where you wanna go Ain't no need to rush it baby, we can take it slow
I swear it must be Cupid shooting arrows with his bow
I notice in your eyes a certain glow

Have me wondering now
Is it really me or tell me do you feel the same?
I feel like I'm in love and I don't even know your name
I know what I am saying to you may sound pretty lame
Your love is like an everlasting flame

So, what is cinco cervezas? I really don't know
But this pretty little senorita said it and I liked how it
flowed
And what is venga mi casa? I really don't know
would go

Chica Bonita, you're pretty like a rose
Mi senorita, me love how you a pose
Dame un beso, your hot and it shows
Toca mi vida and everybody knows

She's my Chica Bonita, you're pretty like a rose

Mi senorita, me love how you a pose
Dame un beso, your hot and it shows
Toca mi vida and everybody knows

Lovely lady, would you please give me a signal
So I know you understand?
Maybe I should start by making gestures with my hand
Girl, you're like a rising star and I'm your biggest fan
My sweet Bonita diva with the tan

Got me thinking baby
We could make a life together on the ocean shore
Paradise is where you are, I'm ready to explore
Can never get enough of you, it's all about amour
And happiness is knocking at your door

So, what is cinco cervezas? I really don't know
But this pretty little senorita said it and I liked how it
flowed
And what is venga mi casa? I really don't know
would go

Chica Bonita, you're pretty like a rose
Mi senorita, me love how you a pose
Dame un beso, your hot and it shows
Toca mi vida and everybody knows

She's my Chica Bonita, you're pretty like a rose
Mi senorita, me love how you a pose
Dame un beso, your hot and it shows
Toca mi vida and everybody knows
