Ft. Jazmine Sullivan

I'ma die in you arms tonight
Love this, I would like to know what kind of love this
I'ma die in you arms tonight
Love this, I would like to know what kind of love this

I can keep you safe when you feel you are in danger
Straight up in my arm girl you know I'm not a stranger
Rock you to sleep like a baby and an angel
Cause with me is where you belong, girl
Wrap my arms around you, love from every angle
Who care of dem fell this, dem kian't â€¦
You me and Cupid make a good love triangle
Cause right here is where you belong

So don't let go of me now
Cause i'm dying in your arms tonight
Tell all my people around
That i'll see them in the after life
Cause something this big can't get that bad
So I really don't think again
Never ever come down
Your love has got me feelin' like
Imma die in your arms tonight
Imma die in your arms tonight

More time me wonder when you getting ah my system
Love so strong sometimes I feel like I'm the victim
When she move, she rude boy, I know the â€¦ting
Let me tell all I can, sing about everyting
Man me feel like everyday I wonder where the earth is Trust you with my heart cause I know you never hurt it
If I die not tonight, I'm pretty sure it will be worth it
Cause right here is where you belong

So don't let go of me now
Cause i'm dying in your arms tonight
Tell all my people around
That i'll see them in the after life
Cause something this big can't get that bad

So I really don't think again
Never ever come down
Your love has got me feelin' like
Imma die in your arms tonight
Imma die in your arms tonight

It might be the last night that they see me
So tell everyone that I love
That this man stole my heart completely
So I won't be coming back, cause I'm sprung

So don't let go of me now
Cause i'm dying in your arms tonight
Tell all my people around
That i'll see them in the after life
Cause something this big can't get that bad
So I really don't think again
Never ever come down
Your love has got me feelin' like
Imma die in your arms tonight
