Ohhhhhh.....

Baby I hope you dun get offended in anyway ya know

But your beauty is so

Magnificent

I'm just tempted to touch ya know

Yo bebe jus a meks sha a gwaan now??

[Brian Gold - Chorus]

Would you be offended if I told ya

I like the way you lick your lips

Would u be offended if I showed ya

How I like to work those hips

Is it a rude for mi to wink

An let you know I like what I see

Would u be offended if I touch ya

Imagine how it could be

[Shaggy - Verse 1]

Your like a jewel baby

This ain't no pick up line

Epitome of a lady

Truly one of a kind

Wear a precious diamond

Wid all dem polish shine?

Can't wait to hold u closer

Can u read my mind later images for which I won't apologize

I hope that u can see the passion in my eyes

Won't over step our boundries

These words are hard to find

Stated my intentions

Hope you my way inclined

[Brian Gold]

Tell me if im wrong expressing how I feel

how can I go on

if I don't know the deal

Would you be offended if I told ya

I like the way you lick your lips

Would u be offended if I showed ya

How I like to work those hips
Is it a rude for mi to wink
An let you know I like what I see
Would u be offended if I touch ya
imagine how it could be

[Shaggy - Verse 2]

No need to be embarrassed
I know you feel the same
You feel my record
Can I say this ain't no players game You feel the spark between us come lets ignite the flame coz if you let it pass we'll only have ourselves to blame showing you a world of pleasure that's my only aim I wanna take ya to the clouds an let you scream my name this is your decision baby stake your claim take a chance coz if you don't den it would be a shame

[Brian Gold]

Tell me am im wrong
expressing how I feel can I go on
if I don't know the deal
heyyy.....

Would you be offended if I told ya
I like the way you lick your lips
Would u be offended if I showed ya
