What can i said
You're the one who go whit me along the way You're the truest love You've gave life since the first day
And i know you care That's why you keep telling me to be straight 'cuz you're the strongest people that i've ever met

since i recall
you're the light in every morning sound and i see you again
cause i'm still being that kid who wanna stay just with you again and i bear the blame for the treat i give you when i am afraid i know you understand me but it hurt me anyway so here we go again up against the wall facing another day i wish i just could be the one who follow your steps

since i recall
just whit you again

right on time i realize that deep inside we are one now 'cuz you've always been the stronger all this time i've been see you but can't wake up

since i recall
cause i'm still being that kid who wanna stay just whit you again
