I love the smell of rain
And to watch the seasons change
And to let the falling snow melt in my hand
I love the sound of waves
And the way that apples taste
And I know these are familiar loves

But our love is our love
And girl I love our love
And heaven has given this love to only us
And I love our love

I love to stare at stars
And wonder who we are

I love to laugh out loud
And steal away from crowds
Now I know these are familiar loves

But our love is our love
And girl I love our love
And heaven has given this love to only us
And no one could ever know this cause this love is our love

And no one could ever show this this love is our love
-Oooh-
this love is our love

Our love is our love
And girl I love you
Heaven has given this love to only us
Our love is our love
And girl I love our love
-Yeah-

Heaven has given this love to only us
this love is only ours
this love
I love our love
