All I have is all I need enough for love but not for greed yeah

I was younger once this guy came to me told me about all the honey out there

He said "honey gold jewels money women wine cars that shine"

I don't know what he was talking about but I think I had an idea.

He said "smell the rose, sweet sweet rose, catch the sun find where it grows.

Smell the rose, the sweet sweet rose that grows on castle walls in heaven.

In heaven, yeah."

Well if it feels like summer

you're catching the sun and I'm catching the moment you fall.

If it tastes like honey

don't swallow it all,

don't wait for the moment to come- and catch the sun.

chorus

Hey dude,

don't lean on me man

Cause I'm losing my direction and I can't understand, no no

Hey dude,

well I do what I can

But you treat me like a woman

when I feel like a man.

I was crossing the city one day,

everybody was flashing by me

Like images of tombstones, images of tombstones.

On a Friday night

I've seen everybody looking for their little bit of honey

To alleviate the pain,

to alleviate the pain.

Well if it feels like summer

you're catching the sun,

don't wait for the evening to fall,

don't swallow it all,

don't wait for the moment to come- and catch the sun.

No, no, n no, no, n no, no, n no, no

Well I can't understand and I feel like a man

sing it to me honey

- and catch the sun

Hey dude, no, no, n no

Hey dude, no, no, n no

and you treat me like a woman

Oh yeah
