Will I ever see the pleasure that will never end

Hidden in the misty forest that desire send

Mesmerised like fireflys falling through a flame

If I wait I'll be too late to holler out your name

If I wait another day to travel to the east

Time may prey upon me, dance upon me with it's feet

Hidden in the temple they are building to the sun

Hidden in the forest, hidden figure with a gun

I have waited to be here

Now I feel you, feel you near - take me home
