"Choosing teams"

baby, they're choosing teams again standing in line and wondering when I know it's gonna hurt if our names aren't called out first baby, I think we're old enough to not be sweating that playground stuff thank god the days are passed I was so scared of being last and we're not going to school today got a broke down car and some bills unpaid I only want to see you anyway no, we're not going to school again got a mess worth making and some rules to bend I only want to see you baby, I'm glad the days are gone all the kids putting their new clothes on I know the time is here when you lay with your darkest fears

and we're not going to school today got bun in the oven and some drinks to make I only want to see you, anyway
there's a life worth living, why would we pretend?
I only want to see you
I only want to see you in the end
