I got a name that's hard to remember
It could be any one scrolling on your TV screen
It's like a slogan stuck on a fender
It could be anyone rolling up and down your street

I know my story's got holes
A bad B-movie of a one man show but I try, so give my tonight
I'm trapped in the orbit of your rolling eyes

(Chorus)Yeah I'm thinking of you
And all of the things that we pulled through
And you oughta believe I always will be there
It's a solemn guarantee
As long as you remember me

I wrote a song that's hard to remember
It could be any one hiding in your mp3's
It's like a cold, dark day in December
It's nearly Christmas but cold as a witch's tea

I know the rhythm don't flow it's hard to get down to the one man show but I try, so tell me white lies i'm red as the apple of your big brown eyes

Chorus
