

David Mead "Only A Dream"

Visit "Only A Dream" on MotoLyrics.com

Sundays are the best, blanketed in silence
Perfect in the place where you are Comfortable, I guess, but no man is an island
Breaking waves and shooting at stars

Paperback is done, so move out to the corner
Dive into the sea of the crowd
Say it's all been done and life is made to order
Counting cracks and thinking out loud

But if you awake with a shake and a shiver
From down in the depths of the mess you've seen
Just leave it behind, close your eyes and remember
It's only a dream

The story will unfold, prince will turn to pauper
Jumpin' to conclusions too soon
Merry marigold, there's nothing left to offer
[Incomprehensible] resemble cartoons

But if you awake with a shake and a shiver
From down in the depths of the mess you've seen
Just leave it behind, close your eyes and remember
It's only a dream, it's only a dream

And if you awake with a shake and a shiver
From down in the depths of the mess you've seen
Just leave it behind, close your eyes and remember
It's only a dream

Yeah, if you awake with a shake and a shiver
From down in the depths of the mess you've seen
Just leave it behind, close your eyes and remember
It's only a dream, it's only a dream, it's only a

Visit David Mead page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.