

David Mead

"Reminded #1"

Visit "Reminded #1" on MotoLyrics.com

I wasn't breaking your heart, just closing the bar and I wasn't trying to be cool, just bending some rules I know it sounds hard to believe but I guess I needed to be reminded of how bad it might have been yes, I needed to be reminded of working on a bitter end

there's nothing to fear, whatever I do you know I always remember you but I needed to be reminded of me so I ordered up a new round of jokes and blew a curtain of smoke swung from the fixtures of fame and put a face to the name then I opened up an old wound to bleed but I was happy to be reminded of how bad it might have been

yes, I needed to be reminded of working on a bitter
end
there's nothing to fear, whatever I do
you know I always remember you
but I needed to be reminded of me

Visit David Mead page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.