[Vers]

Somethings telling me
To go where I used to be
Take the chances I get
And use them the right way
Always see the light
Always thinking bright
And you will make up your mind
And see your decisions go right

[Ref]

And can you see, all those lightnings
That embraces our thoughts for real
It seperates all our feelings
And takes away all our pain

[Vers]

What I have is real
But my outside you fear
But You always believed
In my words between
I have never lied
Or even made you cry
And now you're telling me
To go my own way

[Ref]

And can you see, all those lightnings
That embraces our thoughts for real
It seperates all our feelings
And takes away all our pain

[Ref]

And can you see, all those lightnings
That embrace our thoughts for real
It seperates all our feelings
And take away all our pain
