I got my reasons, there is no sign.
You know my way and I can't deny
Take the leap and begin to explode
Like I did and that's the way I know

You wanna be somebody else
Cut your wrist, it's not okay
Blood stained on the walls behind
All this blood will make you blind
So don't pretend
Choose your way you're not a saint
Wait for the moment to sell your name
You don't wanna be stuck in ties

I look for a chance to blame your ass
You think you're good when you succeed in class
Sex and booze should fill your mind
Instead you're just here wasting your time

You wanna be somebody else
Cut your wrist, it's not okay
Blood stained on the walls behind
All this blood will make you blind
So don't pretend
Choose your way you're not a saint
Wait for the moment to sell your name
You don't wanna be stuck in ties

You wanna be somebody else
Cut your wrist, it's not okay
Blood stained on the walls behind
All this blood will make you blind
So don't pretend
