Loose your head lay your soyl
Lick your wound and taste the blood
Feel the pain on your own
But it hurts so lovely
Choose your hell, meet the fog
Let it all surround the core
Be the one like a storm
Lightning throught the darkness
Oh never, no never
Never fear to suffer
Never hide behind a smile
Never cry without a sound
Be the sigh in a song
Be the silence in a romp
Be the stain on the wall
Be the one deciding
Be the first but too late
Be the last performace
Oh never, no never
Never fear to suffer
Never hide behind a smile
Never cry without a sound
