So I'll never know if I can see at any time all that I need
For finding out what I will be
Then I need to start with something new
As if it is all clear and true
Included like eternal views
Why do I hide myself
Why do I hide myself
Why do I hide from what I do
Don't wanna regret my ways
Don't wanna regret my time
Don't wanna regret my waits
Don't wanna regret my time
You can say to everyone you're free
Only say things you believe
But you can't lose me like this Fine you always know you got the might
To realize what you desire
You cannot change me and nevermind
Why do I hide myself
Why do I hide myself
Why do I hide from what I do
Don't wanna regret my ways
Don't wanna regret my time
Don't wanna regret my waits
Don't wanna regret my time
