

Shane Alexander

"Brother Of Mine"

Visit "Brother Of Mine" on MotoLyrics.com

Out of the darkness came a pinhole full of light
Out of the emptiness some peace of mind tonight
Filling the space that had been dark in both our lives
Slowly at first, but still grows brighter all the time

And I can't lie, I never thought about it all that much
I don't know why, but now you've opened up my eyes
Brother of mine

A familiar face, you've got a smile that looks like mine
Ten years between us, we grew up in different times
But what's in the past don't make much difference anymore
Now that it's open, may we never close the door

Cuz I can't lie, I never thought about it all that much
I don't know why, but now you've opened up my eyes
Brother of mine
Brother of mine
Brother of mine

What's the lesson to be learned from the way the story's turned
From the way the fear has died

Cuz I can't lie, I never thought about it all that much
I don't know why but now you've opened up my eyes
No I can't lie, I never thought about it all that much
I don't know why but now you've opened up my eyes

Brother of mine
Brother of mine
Brother of mine
Brother of mine

Visit Shane Alexander page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.