Take me away from here
And all today's pain
You know I see it all so clear
The morning after the rain
And I worry all the time
What's coming around the bend
Maybe I'm just going crazy
But it feels like the end

I don't remember what I've done
I'm done with all the years
I've got no one but myself
To ask "how did I get here"
And I worry all the time
What's coming around the bend
Maybe I'm just going crazy
But it feels like the end

I wonder where you are tonight
Does the same moon light shine down on you
And what if I had changed your mind
If I'd seen the signs
Tell me what we'd be doing now

Cause now I'm walking down the street
Got no money for a car
I've been walking for so long
And I never got very far
And I worry all the time
What's coming around the bend
Maybe I'm just going crazy
But it feels like the end

I wonder where you are tonight
Does the same moon light shine down on you
And what if I had changed your mind
If I'd seen the signs
Tell me what would we be doing now

Take me away from here
And all today's pain

You know I see it all so clear
The morning after the rain
And I worry all the time
What's coming around the bend
Maybe I'm just going crazy
And it feels like the end
