Little woman, it's a big world hide yourself away Cuz you got something that I need now, save yourself for me

Like a diamond in the dirt, I picked you up I made you shine
Now your light has grown so bright, you got me goin' blind

Little woman, where are you tonight? I hope you're safe and sound
Cuz you're so out there - are you still in there?
Where's that girl I found?

Now your star is on the rise, you got no time to say goodbyes
I hope you don't end up alone when that light has been outshone

One day you're gonna ask yourself where your real friends are What happened to all the good times?
Little woman, you best watch yourself Before you've gone too far and you've lost every good thing that you had Little woman, such a big world hide yourself away Cuz you got something that I need now Save yourself for me Baby save yourself for me

Baby save yourself
Oh, for me
