You have got to learn to just give yourself a break You've been workin' oh so hard and there's just too much at stake
The road goes on and on and on and every passing day
Draws us closer to our horizon, our final resting place

Believe me, I've seen my share of pain
But I never knew the sunshine till I got caught in the rain

So take a breath every now and then, drink in that setting sun
Don't forget to have a good time, though there's much work to be done Just sit and watch the clouds roll by and wonder at their shapes
If only for a moment, let them carry you away

Believe me, I've seen my share of pain
But I never knew the sunshine till I got caught in the
rain

Cuz you are one of those who put too much on themselves
You'd never dream of asking anyone for any help
But the road goes on and on and on and every passing
Draws us closer to our horizon, our final resting place

Believe me, I've seen my share of pain
But I never knew the sunshine till I got caught in the
rain
I never knew the sunshine till I got caught in the rain
