

Shane Alexander

"She Didn't Need Me"

Visit "She Didn't Need Me" on MotoLyrics.com

I need somebody lookin' after me tonight
Just someone to watch me fall asleep and turn out the light
My love has gone and it don't look like she's comin'
back
My train is jumpin' off its track

It was all goin' great, but I woke up much too late
I was headed for a fall, she didn't need me after all

She was the only thing I had to hold on to Now tell me what the hell am I supposed to do
My love has gone and the walls are closin' in on me
Tomorrow feels so far away

It was all goin' great, but I woke up much too late
I was headed for a fall, she didn't need me after all

How long will it take to recover?
How long till the sun shines again
How long till I find myself another to take her place
And what am I gonna do with myself till then

So I need somebody lookin' after me tonight
Just someone to watch me fall asleep and turn out the
light
My love has gone and it don't look like she's comin'
back
Tomorrow feels so far away

It was all goin' great, but I woke up much too late
I was headed for a fall, she didn't need me
Why am I so afraid to let go of the love we made
I'm waitin' on her call, but she didn't need me
She didn't need me after all after all

Visit Shane Alexander page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.