Here we go again i forgot about You today
Pass the salt to me don't pour it out
Well i might as well be cold i figured out
It's all a waste of time
Why you dig a well if you're gonna find it dry my friend?
Sharpen up that ax, don't chop it down
Well you might as well have laid the wet stone down
It's all a waste of time
How can i know this and still walk away?!
My life, it's all a waste of time
Why you sippin java if you know you need your rest tonight?
Add some sugar please, some sweet and low
And make it all decaffeinated so i won't stay up
It's all a waste of time
Why prepare for battle if you're never gonna fight my friend?
Battle lines are drawn, negotiating with the Spirit
Can i make a deal on my own terms?
It's all a waste of time
How can i know this and still walk away?!
My life, it's all a waste of time
To be in my, in my comfort zone
Your life is the Truth, so worthy of my time!
Here we go again i forgot about You today
