may my life be written down written on a scroll
written on a stone
may my words be written down with an iron pen
with a rock on lead
for i know...

that my Redeemer lives
that my Redeemer lives
my Redeemer lives
my Redeemer lives

my Redeemer, He shall stand stand on the earth
and when my skin is gone in my flesh i shall see God and my eyes behold
how my heart it yearns
my heart it yearns...

that my Redeemer lives
that my Redeemer lives
yes my Redeemer lives
my Redeemer lives

not by power or might or strength or riches, wealth or fame may my life be written down because i know, i know...

that my Redeemer lives
my Redeemer lives
yes my Redeemer lives

He lives, He lives
He lives, He lives
