Let go of yourself,
Let your words disappear,
And release all the tension,
Let go of your fear,
As you look at me I can feel the warmth in your eyes.

Smile three times and I'll kiss your lips
You speak of the way my heart skips a beat when your near me,
So smile if you can feel me.
And I, I'm blown away by you,
And every little thing you do.

So hold me close, it'll all be okay.
And even when my world falls apart, I'll still love you
anyway.
Anyway, anyway.

When the sky disappear and my bones turn to dust,
Even when it's all over there will still be us together.
You and me, together.

So stay with me a while.
Throw these worries out the window.
My futures in your eyes,
Life has never been so simple.
So stay with me a while,
We'll throw these worries out the window.
My future's in your eyes.
Life has never been so simple.

So hold me close, it'll all be okay.
And even when my world falls apart, I'll still love you
anyway.
Anyway, anyway.
When the sky disappears and my bones turn to dust,
Even when it's all over there will still be us, together.
Just you and me, together.
Oh, together.
Just you and me, together.
