I lie awake
With sickness in my stomach
I like awak
All the world is sleeping now,
I can't escape these dreams in mind
I try and try so hard to find
A way in my heart to make them all come true somehow

If it's mean to be
I know it will be just fine,
But if I'm wrong this wouldn't be the first time

Monday Morning,
Without Warning Comes-
I'm under the gun,
If time betrays me
You could save me
Cause you're the only back up plan
I have

To all my friends
Everyone adores me
To all my friends
I'm the lucky one
I know in time, I know in time
All my friends will pass me by,
They'll have families and jobs
And I'll be singing in the bars...

Monday morning, without warning comes
I'm under the gun
If time betrays me, you could save me
Cause you're the only back up plan
I have

I'll endure another sleepless night,
Rocking like a baby til' the morning light
Comes, comes
