I know what's lurkin'
In the corners of her mind
Do I still feel the same
After all this time?

I've got to let her know
The power of my love.
But I may need help
From above.

Chorus:
So Lord help me show her
How I feel.
My love still burns strong,
And it always will.
I can't find the words to say
Would she believe them anyway?
Oh Lord help me show her
How I feel.

Sayin' "I love you"
Is a daily routine.
So how can I use those words
To tell her what I mean?

A dozen roses would just
Wither and die
I've got to show her
This love's for life.

Repeat Chorus

I've got to prove to her
The love that's in my heart
But I don't know
Just where to start.

Repeat Chorus

Oh Lord help me show her
How I feel.
Oh Lord please help me

Show her how I feel
