Ain't nobody perfect
I too have made mistakes
But I never was the type to freely give myself away
My body is my temple
For it I've shown respect
Finally I have found someone
That came at me correct
And forever I'll be grateful for the gift you've given me
A chocolate man who truly honors me
I'm so crazy over you
You've given me strength in all that I do
Baby I can't believe what you've given to me
I'm so crazy for you, for you
I'm so glad I waited
You were so worth it
Second floor room 203
That night I won't forget
I can remember the smell of your cologne
For the first time I feel like a woman grown
I knew from that moment I would never be alone
And forever I'll be grateful for the gift you've given me
A chocolate man who truly honors me
I'm so crazy over you
You've given me strength in all that I do
Baby I can't believe what you've given to me
I'm so crazy for you, for you
I'll be forever yours
Aint never going nowhere
Your beauty I adore (I'm so glad I finally found you)
And I'm so grateful for the joy that you've given me
I'm so crazy over you
You've given me strength in all that I do
Baby I can't believe what you've given to me
I'm so crazy for you, for you
