Take a look at yourself, something's wrong with your Eyes today, cause your looking with anger and the Battle hasn't started yet. I just want to believe that There wasn't another way, 'cuz emotional struggle in a
Progressive mind is not a mistake... he said.

But now it's the time, you know, we're gonna have the Power that we deserve, as we're been fighting so hard
For it, and now things will go better, 'cuz we are not
Out of time, if not they'll try to come and change our

Lives, and make a change in our believes...

Don't you think it's not worth though we have to Wait, it's not a question of winners or losers, if we Fear all the words that we want to say we consume
Their trend, we just play their game.

I know it's hard to build the change, but we count on
You, feel free and independent, work together with the Human collective, freedom is just something we must Choose.
