If heaven's where your soul gets fed
Your hell is an empty bed
But it's never hard to keep it full
There ain't too many arms you have to pull

You think that you're getting love
They know they're just getting some
And deep inside you know it's true
But you don't dare believe it, do you? Do you?

You just lay it down like a quarter on the railroad track
Sticks to the wheel you're never gonna get it back
It won't do you no good to change your mind
'Cause it already fell off somewhere down the line

Now all the boys call you when they're looking for a
good time
Looking for a good time

These days they call it casual
Well, that just means they'll leave when they get full
Yeah, they say you're cool 'cause you don't care
But in the morning you always cry if they're not there

And you think if they could only see you now
But I swear they'd do it anyhow
'Cause they'll say anything to play the part
But they don't give a damn about your heart, your heart

You just lay it down like a quarter on the railroad track
Sticks to the wheel you're never gonna get it back
It won't do you no good to change your mind
'Cause it already fell off somewhere down the line

Now all the boys call you when they're looking for a
good time
Looking for a good time

You say you never tell the boys how bad you need it
Every scream is your prayer
You say I love you and you swear you didn't mean it
'Cause you both agree this would go nowhere

Someday I hope that you get tired
Of waking up with thieves and liars
Maybe you'll go searching for the truth
The kind that ain't written on a phone booth, no, no

You won't lay it down like a quarter on the railroad track
Sticks to the wheel you're never gonna get it back
It won't do you no good to change your mind
'Cause it already fell off somewhere down the line

Now all the boys call you when they're looking for a
good time
Looking for a good time
Yeah, just looking for a good time
