Verse I

Ain't it funny how life is
I used to be the one
Always worryin' bout if he
Was creepin' with someone
Then it ends up that I am
The one I always feared

Verse II

Didn't know what to tell him
Did not know what to do
So I kept on pretendin'
Sayin' "There's no one else but you"
Still, he saw it in my eyes
I hadn't told the truth

Chorus

In Just One Night
I lost everything I owned
'Cause In Just One Night
I pretended I was alone
Now, I don't need to pretend anymore
You won't see him coming
Around my door
In Just One Night
He realized
I'm not the one to love

Verse III

Finally the truth poured out
Like the teardrops from my eyes
He just couldn't believe
That I could live with all those lies
But I guess I was blinded
I didn't realize

Verse IV

I thought it could be easy
That we could work things out
But it's obvious that I didn't
Have a clue what love was about
Had to learn it the hard way
The day he let me go
