Verse

It's a beautiful day
Just a second ago it rained
Then out came the sun
And I saw the most beautiful someone
Long, curly brown hair
I had the funniest feeling
Down somewhere
Then a rainbow appeared
It was telling me that love is near

Chorus

I see a rainbow
I see a rainbow
Whenever that girl walks by
Heavenly colors
Heavenly colors
They're kissing in the sky

Verse II

You're the pot of gold
You're the treasure that I want
To hold
So tight underneath
Underneath my bedroom sheets
It's something so new
But I could see it
Happening with you, yeah
Just look up to the sky
Is it something that you
Wanted to try?
