I remember when I was alone, I was living with a hole in my soul

Looking back, I had a heart of stone because my only hope, somebody stole

And then you came along like a perfect song and turned my world around

CHORUS:

You make me believe in magic when you're holding me tight

I can feel it inside

Yes, you make me believe in magic

Everything that you do tells me I will never be alone

Cause I feel our love is growing strong

You make me believe in magic

Take a look into my open eyes

I am ready not to let it begin

Every step, I've got you by my side

You make me feel like I can do anything

One day you came along....
