Make me believe that my life here is worth something
more than nothing,
All I can see is your faith that is made of a perfect disease.
All I can feel is your face bleeding behind that burning wall of pain.
Show me the wayÂ...

I need you to show me,
Show me how to live again
Breathe life into me
Before I slip away
Show me how to live againÂ...

I canÂ't go on if your going to leave me, I just canÂ't hang on.
How can I show you that youÂ're the only one that is left to, help me?
I thought I could trust you, but now I realize and IÂ've
come to see,
That all of this time youÂ've been deceiving, you took advantage of meÂ...

I need you to show me,
Show me how to live again
Breathe life into me,
Before I slip away,
Show me how to live againÂ...

I give an inch,
You take a mile.
You take advantage of all I have to give.
Although itÂ's not a lot, I'm proud of what I have.
And now, its time, to TAKE IT BACK
TAKE IT BACK (take it back, take it back)
TAKE IT BACK (take it back, take it back)
ITS, TIME, I, TAKE, IT, BACK!
