[Verse 1:]

You had your moments
You had your pain
You packed it all in
Stopped playing the game
Never any second thoughts
Oh so young yet so much taught
You went and got your head together
You underated little treasure

[Verse 2:]

These days anyones called a star
Your so underated that's what you are
A star is something that shines
A star never leaves your mind
The words made for you of that there's no doubt
There, s very few of them about
I'll name my star that's what I'll do
Siobhan donaghy that star is you

[Verse 3:]

I bet you learnt lessons
On who where your friends
I bet you learnt lessons
On who was pretend
I bet you shred a few tears
During those few difficult years
No matter what got thrown at you
A young lady with class came through

[Repeat verse 1]

[Verse 4:]

And now your back with your solo career
With talent like yours there's nothing to fear
Getting that sparkle back in your eye
You don't lose beauty it's sent from the sky
But I'm crossing my fingers
And I'm crossing my toes
For the girl I had a crush on
When she sang overload
