Verse 1:

A mixed emotion, a state of mind, infatuation of a different kind Hesitation's holding me back from you, fascination's drawing me near
There's a strange reaction caught between attraction and fear, oh oh

Chorus:

You make me nervous, makin' me nervous
You make me nervous, I wanna hold you but I'm scared
I lose control
You make me nervous, makin' me nervous
You make me nervous, what you're gonna say or what I'll do I never know

Verse 2:

Anticipating your every move, my nervous breakdown is up to you Doesn't take a psychoanalyst's mind to see Just what it is that's keeping me here
There's a strange reaction caught between attraction
and fear, oh oh
