I went out last Friday night
Saw this blue eyed girl at the party across the room
She was sh-shakin' her hips,
Batting her eyes at me
I just couldn't say no
And I know this'll go too far
When she pushes me against the wall
And she says...
It feels soooo good when you do me that way.

I think we're moving too fast
Cause everything's a blur
I can barely see my own hands
In front of my eyes
I think we're moving too fast
Cause everything's a blur, if this is love,
Then I'm out of control.

Wake up the next morning,
She's not there, I think I might
Make it out alive,
Then she jumped in my bed
Nothing but my t-shirt on and a guilty
Look in her eye
She knows this has gone too far
She sees the clothes lying on
The floor and she says...
It feels soooo good when you do me that way.

If this is love,
Why do I feel like an animal when you're around?
If this is love,
Why do I feel lik ean animal when you're around?
