I'm all alone,
Driving down this dead end road,
I'm a searching soul
Lookin' for someone to call my own

This can't be, all that's left of me
I can't see what's in front of me,
When I'm faced with destiny
I hope I get it right

So whatcha doin' tonight?
Do you think I can give you a ride?
We'll be back by the morning light
And you might have a new man by your side,
If you play your cards right

I've been broken before
Had my heart kicked right out the door
I'm so unsure. Is this real?
Is this too pure?

I'm gonna turn this around right now
Gonna turn this around
I'm gonna turn this around right now
