She stands outside my door,
With tears in her eyes
She's begging me not to go
She's begging me not to go

She said I'm sorry for
What happened last night
Can we give this another try... one more try?

And I said
My bags are packed I'm heading out
There's nothing you can do to stop me now

This is me,
Taking your photo off the wall
This is me, ignoring every single call
This is me, letting go... of you

I am not the kind,
To leave without good-bye
That girl don't deserve
A damn thing from me
