This world can be
Full of undying hate
With no sympathy
It's so hard to find someone
Who truly cares out there

As I look around
I see so many problems
And no rant is found
Material things cannot
Make the emptiness fade
It will stay

We don't have to go far
To find the happiness we need
Listen to our hearts
And they'll say

Just a little luv will get you through
Just a little luv that's all
Just a little luv is all you need to get by

We emphasize
Too much on personal gain
Never realize
The one and only thing
That makes all the blessings flow... flow

If you want to help
Find the truth
Just look deep into yourself
Cause it's there

Just a little luv will get you through (just a little luv)
Just a little luv that's all (that's all)
Just a little luv is all you need to get by (to get by)

We don't have to go far
To find the happiness we need
Listen to our hearts
And they'll say

Just a little luv will get you through (just a little luv baby)
Just a little luv that's all (is all we need)
Just a little luv is all you need to get by

We need love in this world

Just a little luv will get you through (just take a friend by the hand)
Just a little luv that's all (help your brother mend, just love him)
Just a little luv is allâ€¦
