Good morning
Beautiful day but I'm runnin' late again
Y'know I lose track of time
The only thing on my mind is you

The days are rollin', slippin' away
But I just want to take my time
Y'know I've been here before
But there's just something I don't think you've realized

I told myself I wouldn't fall and wear my Heart out on my sleeve again
But I'm already, fallin' helplessly

Want you to take me baby, away
From all the other ones I've loved before
The only thing that matter's now is that I've got you

Want you to tell me baby, what I've Been trying hard to tell you all this time
I don't wanna be afraid but sometimes my feelings get in the way
