Ohh hey oh oh oh
Watching you watching me with a smile it can Take me back down the roads through the miles that we
Made it through me and you spend a while and I know
That we got even further to go
If I could take all the hurt, all the hard times
And tear apart all the words all the harsh lines
The crazy things people do sometimes even me and you
I would paint our darker skies blue
And I know that some might say
That we should be afraid
Of the road that lies ahead
Well let me say this instead
I don't care what might happen
I'll read our future here it goes
I'll love you till I die
And you and me babe you and me will be alright
And when our sun starts setting
I'll love you through the shades of gray
I know there'll be hard times
But you and me babe you and me will be alright

Alright, alright, yeah

There came a point when I knew what I know now
Well not to look in youe eyes that will spell it out
The seasons past and we last just like I knew we would
I guess I've learnt to read you good
Up and down like the temperature we've been Summer days, winter nights with no sleeping
We've taken love to the edge and it showed us what we have
And every single day I'm glad
And I know that some might say
Gonna Be Alright lyrics on ~Shayne-Ward.html
That we should be afraid
Of the road that lies ahead
Well let me say this instead
I don't care what might happen

I'll read our future here it goes
I'll love you till I die
And you and me babe you and me will be alright
And when our sun starts setting
I'll love you through the shades of gray
I know there'll be hard times

I'll open up my heart and you'll Reciprocate and the feelings that I have for you
They'll never change like the ocean never changes
No other way
I'll never let you go
Never let you go
Never let you go
I don't care what might happen
I'll read our future here it goes
I'll love you till I die
And you and me babe you and me will be alright
And when our sun starts setting
I'll love you through the shades of gray
I know there'll be hard times
But you and me babe you and me will be alright
I don't care what might happen
I'll read our future here it goes
I'll love you till I die
And you and me babe you and me will be alright
And when our sun starts setting
I'll love you through the shades of gray
I know there'll be hard times

Alright
It's gonna be alright
