(Shelby Lynne - Jamie O'Hara - Brent Maher)

Every now and then I get to feelin' blue
Ain't no deal baby - I get through
Well a cryin' and a moanin' just ain't my way
The blues may come, but the blues don't stay

Chorus

I reach for the rhythm
And I reach for the rhythm
Well I reach for the rhythm and throw my cares away

Yes I do get crazy every now and then
About where I'm goin' or where I've been
Oh but when my life is like a stormy day
I ain't gonna let it stay that way

Repeat Chorus

Bridge

Hey there's really nothing to it I surrender to the music
And I wind up singing along
If I can sing and I can swing
Well then there ain't too much too wrong

Repeat Chorus

Repeat Bridge

Repeat Chorus

Well I reach for the rhythm and throw my cares away
