Why'd you turn over every stone
If we're not together
Why don't you leave me alone
Doing fine on my own
Why are you still here day and night
When you left you should have turned off every light
I believe you were right

But I can't walk backwards
And I can't slow it down
Well you started the ball rolling
And you can't turn it around
You should leave the dust here
Where it falls
Stop this hanging on,
Please don't call
Don't call.

We've been here too many times and if
You don't look then you won't find you said
You didn't have the time
Well, some people fall apart and there's
Some that don't even start
I knew that it wouldn't last

But I can't walk backwards
And I can't slow it down
Well you started the ball rolling
And you can't turn it around
You should leave the dust here
Where it falls
Stop this hanging on,
Please don't call
Don't call.

But I can't walk backwards
And I can't slow it down
Well you started the ball rolling
And you can't turn it around
You should leave the dust here
Where it falls

Stop this hanging on,
Please don't call
Don't call.
