Something in your voice
Leaves me with no choice
You always win (win)

The tone and the sound
Ties me to the ground
I'm taken in
You're breakin' through my skin

I love you like a melody
You're runnin' through my head
I love you like a simple song
You always sound the best
I love you

Now it's hard to believe
What you see in me
The strength you possess
Your tenderness

Above and below
The night we let go
There's something I know
You're breakin' through my skin

I love you like a melody
You're runnin' through my head
I love you like a simple song
You always sound the best
I love you
You always sound the best
You always sound the best
You always sound the best

I love you like a melody
You're runnin' through my head
I love you like a simple song
You always sound the best
You always sound the best
You always sound the best
You always sound the best
