You better heed the warning of the hurricane
A fast wind whirling, blowing out your name
She'll pull you in and then blow you away
So you'd better heed the warning of the hurricane

Well she's fast and mighty-she'll beg you to stay
A path of destruction is her middle name
She'll pull you in and then blow you away
So you'd better heed the warning of the hurricane

Chorus

Well don't look in her eye-she'll confuse you
Don't fall for her love-she'll abuse you
Well I'm holding up the sign
Please read what it's saying
Cause you'd better heed the warning of the hurricane

Repeat chorus

Well don't look in her eye-she'll confuse you
Don't fall for her love-she'll abuse you
Well I'm holding up the sign
Please read what it's saying
Cause you'd better heed the warning of the hurricane
