She's alone in this world and she's waiting for it all to end and when she sees them walk by
with their Wings
and with their Smiles
it reminds her
of all the things
that she used to have don't remind her
coz all she has
is all she had...

I'm alone in this world but I'm waiting for
it all to mend
as I see them walk by
with their Wings
and with their Smiles
it reminds me
of all the things
that I used to have
don't remind me! coz I!
